The Shanowakin.

Mack, as the avenger of the Shanowakin, has a wonderful voice.

John E. Mack of the Shanowakin company has a natural adaptation to the part he plays, and by his well-controlled voice takes possession of his auditors to that delicate degree that when the applause breaks it sounds like the mighty thundering of a host of people.

When Bryant, the Ralph Stackpole of the Shanowakin company, hops into the middle of the stage and proclaims his unlimited ability to lick any man on earth, he presents a wonderfully striking picture of that class of people who hang around new settlements and attract great attention without possessing any real capacity except to howl.—Music and Drama.

21 Years.

The Courtroom was crowded yesterday to hear Judge Rising pronounce sentence on Geo. M. Parsons for the murder of Geo. Hamilton. The Judge then stated the act as unlawful, unprovoked and cruel; that it merited the full extent of the law, but as the jury had exercised clemency, he would sentence him to 21 years in the Nevada Penitentiary at hard labor.

A motion for a new trial was overruled, but defendants counsel was given 30 days to file objections and corrections of testimony.

Fatal Fight.

San Angelo, Tex., December 13.—Ike Graniskie, Arthur Mayer and two herders have been killed on the Pecos river, 150 miles west of here, in a fight with drifters. The cattlemen in that section are having a great deal of trouble just now with the range owners.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays the pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. 25 cents a bottle.

Where is Freeman?

Editor Carson APPEAL: DEAR SIR:—Will you or can you inform me where I can find John E. Freeman. Some 20 years ago he was connected with the firm of Foster, Freeman & Co., of your town. They also had a store at Glenbrook, on Lake Tahoe, and one directly across the lake on the California side. Mr. Freeman at that time boarded with his wife at the Ormsby House. If I remember right, a gentleman by the name of Doris had charge of the Lake stores.

Mr. Foster went into the drug business, I can't find him in Drum's or Bradstreet's, so I suppose he is out of business. I am a nephew of Mr. Freeman's, my mother being his sister. I should like very much to find him if he is alive. She is dangerously sick; was stricken with paralysis on the streets of New York, and is paralyzed on her left side completely. I can assure you if Mr. Freeman is alive, and can be found, I should like to find him, and put myself in communication with him and inform him of his sister's condition. Her address is 200 West 52nd street, New York City, care of Newport Flats. You can reach me in care of the Knowles Steam Pump Works, at 93 Liberty St., New York.

I trust you will let me hear from you. If Mr. Freeman is alive, there certainly must be some one in the town who knows where he is, and if not asking too much, I trust you will assist me in this matter, and whatever you do, or can do, will be appreciated, and if there is any expense upon your part, I will see that your finance is taken care of. Very truly yours,

CHAS. F. HOAGLAND

P. S. His sister is Mrs. Mary Hoagland wife of John L. Hoagland.

Another Lie Told.

The following dispatch explains itself:

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 16.

TO THE APPEAL:—I met James Yerington in the Palace Hotel today, and he denied that he made any statements relative to the APPEAL as reported by the Gazette. Relative to having had a talk with Foote in San Francisco, as stated by the Gazette, he said he never met Foote prior to last Sunday in Carson; also that everything was harmonious between the '49 Camp and the Nevada exhibit. The best thing Nevada can do is to sink petty quarrels and get to work for the big exhibit.

DAVIS.

The Bicycle Utilized.

A. J. Millard of Carson "takes the cake" for originality. Finding his foot power did not give speed enough to answer the purpose of grinding, and to complete an arrangement for electroplating, he struck on the happy idea of utilizing a Columbia Bicycle, which he thought would have less resistance to the air and less friction on the bearings, and thereby attain a higher speed. Further experiments proved he was right, and he now has a foot power which he says can be made to go 3,000 revolutions a minute, maximum speed.—Courier.

Don't Try to Compete.

On the night of the 25th there will be a dance with first class music at Wiggins' Hall.

A supper will be served by Mrs. Kohl and liquid refreshments for the thirsty will be served to order.

On several occasions during the last two years deadly assaults, and in two or three cases murders, have been committed in the mountainous regions of Yuba county, some fifty or sixty miles from Marysville. It is pretty well determined now that Indians and squawmen were the principal actors in the outlaws, and the Sheriff has made two arrests and offers a reward for a notorious Indian desperado.
